Welcome to Budapest Business School – the largest University of Applied Sciences in Hungary!
BBS offers enduring experiences in the heart of Europe – Hungary: knowledge, friendship, intercultural understanding and many more. This booklet provides both undergraduate and postgraduate students information on learning options and opportunities offered by the university.

BBS provides:

Professional knowledge with practice-oriented focus
Budapest Business School - University of Applied Sciences is a public business school with unique traditions. It has 160 years of history and almost 15,000 students. The university focuses on practical knowledge held in high esteem by companies. The number of international students has been rapidly increasing over the past few years and many of them find employment in the booming Hungarian labour market.

Business oriented faculties
BBS has three Faculties in Budapest: Faculty of Commerce, Hospitality and Tourism; Faculty of International Management and Business; Faculty of Finance and Accountancy. The fourth Faculty, the Zalaegerszeg Faculty of Business Administration is located in the countryside. Each faculty provides specialised knowledge for different fields of business, which also means significant synergies during studies. BBS offers programmes in English, French and German.

Experienced and enthusiastic professors
Our professors have deepened their knowledge and expertise in their respective fields of research. Some of them are members of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, former employees of well-known international organizations or Ambassadors to various countries. Several professors have remarkable international experience and are always ready to share it and help you to become the best.
Excellent job prospects and far-reaching business relationships
BBS has designed its training courses to provide practical knowledge closely adapted to the demands of the labour market. The University offers a broad range of business related disciplines, social sciences programmes and IT studies at higher vocational, BA/BSc, and MA/ MSc levels. Offered by recognised business and public administration institutions, the university's internships provide excellent job opportunities.

Adaptivity
BBS tries to respond to the continuously changing labour market demands by adapting to current trends such as the new industrial revolution, business digitalisation and the emergence of East Asian Studies.

Unique language courses or programmes
BBS is the only Business School in Hungary which has been offering East Asian language courses for business students for more than thirty years.

...AND a colourful student life that you will always remember when you start your successful career.
Develop BBS to become a major player among Universities of Applied Sciences in the Central-Eastern European (CEE) higher education area

NIBS ACCREDITATION

As the first university in Hungary, BBS was awarded International Accreditation by the Network of International Business Schools (NIBS) in 2017.
Why BBS?
BBS has active connections with foreign higher education institutions across five continents. Students come from more than 200 universities through exchange programmes, from almost 50 countries including Erasmus and Stipendium Hungaricum Scholarships.

Competitive study programmes

The university provides practice-oriented training courses and internships at recognised business and public administration institutions.
Generous scholarships

International organizations which collaborate with BBS will help you fund your studies through scholarships. ERASMUS, Stipendium Hungaricum and several bilateral agreements ensure the facilitation of studying at BBS.
Gain more international experience at BBS

BBS opens new horizons for its students. The university co-operates with international organizations and partner universities, providing worldwide experience for students: summer camps, exchange programmes, double degrees and participation in international academic conferences and student competitions.

WHY BUDAPEST?
Budapest, Hungary

Budapest is a conglomerate of cultures
Budapest is one of the most popular tourist destinations visited by about 4.2 million tourists each year. It is a city of numerous World Heritage Sites including the panorama of the Danube bank, the Buda Castle district, Andrássy Street, Heroes' Square and the Millennium Underground - the second oldest in the world after the London Tube. Budapest is a friendly city where people gather together from all over the world.

City for the youth
The city is famous for its bustling cultural life, superb spas and wellness centres and extensive party areas. Budapest is a dream for young people for the great opportunities and its reasonable costs.

City of the future: opportunities for future employment
Being part of the EU since 2004, Hungary has long been a powerful player in the European and the global economy. Numerous multinational companies have offices and facilities here taking advantage of benefits such as the country's Central-European location. International companies are always interested in and keen on employing qualified young workers from all over the world.
A world of experience
Budapest is in the heart of Europe. The favourable geographical position and the short distances between countries offer opportunities for international experience. It is an excellent location for discovering Europe.

Reputation for excellence
Hungary is rightly proud of the centuries-old educational traditions and is an important contribution to the intellectual heritage of the world. Hungarian higher educational institutions are well-known outside the country for carefully preserved traditions, the high quality of training specialists and a high-level of teaching.

International relations
Budapest Business School is an integral part of the world's scientific and educational system. International cooperation projects include double degree programmes, joint training courses, research and shared projects, educational and scientific cooperation. Student, teacher and staff mobility are carried out within the framework of Erasmus, CEEPUS and other mobility programmes.

Stipendium Hungaricum and Tempus foundation

The Stipendium Hungaricum Scholarship Programme was launched in 2013 by the Hungarian Government. The core mission of the Programme is to increase the number of foreign students in Hungary and to encourage Hungarian higher education institutions to attract the brightest foreign students.

The Programme is based on bilateral educational cooperation agreements signed between the Ministries of Education in various foreign countries/territories and Hungary, which are responsible for sending students between institutions. Currently, more than 50 Exchange Partners are engaged in the Programme across 4 different continents.

Thousands of students from all around the world apply for higher educational studies in Hungary each year. The number of Stipendium Hungaricum applicants is continuously increasing as well as the number of available scholarships.

The Programme is managed by Tempus Public Foundation. For further information please visit: http://tka.hu/international-programmes/2966/stipendium-hungaricum

Erasmus Programme

BBS is an active member of the European Erasmus+ Mobility Scholarship Programme. Erasmus students can apply for study and traineeship to countries in Europe and spend a maximum of 12 months abroad per each study cycle: they spend 3-12 months abroad as students at a host university or spend 2-12 months as professional trainees at a private or public organisation active in the labour market. About 150 BBS students take part in the Erasmus+ Mobility Programme each year, most of them studying in Germany, France and Spain. At the same time, BBS does not only ‘send’ students, but also receives and welcomes all Erasmus students within the framework of the Programme. BBS has more than 300 incoming students each year coming from 20 European countries from more than 100 partner institutions. Incoming students can choose from courses offered for international students.

Stipendium Hungaricum scholarship holders cannot apply for the Erasmus Programme.

STUDENT SERVICES
Libraries
The Faculties of BBS have their own public libraries where students have access to international databases. Further assistance is provided by the digital library offering easy access to articles, theses, studies, periodicals and teaching materials closely linked to the academic courses offered by the University.

Information, liaising
The BBS Faculties host several student organizations. They coordinate a great variety of cultural and sports programmes besides representing students' interests. The Student Centres, or the Career and Student Information Offices help students find the necessary information while the Alumni Social Space is a forum for the maintenance of the relationships between graduates and the School. They are also for technical/professional cooperation and for joint activities.

AIESEC
AIESEC, an international organization of young economists, is actively present at BBS as well. Focusing on organizing and implementing professional exchange programmes it is a major promoter of helping students find employment abroad.

Dormitories
Dormitories linked to the Faculty offer the following services:

- computer room
- study room
- internet access
- cooking facilities
- laundry
- photocopier
Accommodation for foreign students
University dormitories can accommodate a limited number of foreign students. Therefore, the Faculties provide assistance to those looking for a accommodation. The renting fees are around EUR 200 - 300 a month per person in Budapest.
